Notes for Daisy Lillian Rust:

DCHS/DCGS Record of Births, Probate Court page 234.

Daisy Rust born June 20, 1894 in Berlin Twp. Parents Charles M. Rust & Ellen Stover.

Daisy was a devoted wife and mother. She died at a young age, a victim of cancer. She was a devout Christian and instilled those values to those she left behind. She joined Peachblow Church, the church built by her grandparents, at the age of twelve and served there as organist for many years. Peachblow Church Records show that she was in regular attendance and faithful in her giving.

From the Delaware Gazette....."Daisy L. McNett the daughter of Charles and Ellen Rust was born on June 21, 1884, and departed this life on January 7, 1935. She gave her heart to God at an early age, having united with the Peachblow United Brethren Church at the age of twelve years, and served as organist of the Sunday School for a number of years. She was united in marriage to William McNett on March 11, 1906. To this union were born seven children, all of whom survive. Although in poor health for several years, Mrs. McNett was always of a pleasant disposition and faced the battles of life with a smile. She was a devoted wife and a kind and loving mother, no sacrifice too great for her to make for the benefit of her family. She leaves to mourn, the husband, William McNett; four daughters, Louise, Pauline, Helen and Thelma; three sons, Melvin, Robert, and Lowell; one brother, Vinton, and numerous other relatives and friends."

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning
of the bar,
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark;
And may there be no sadness of farewell

When I embark.
For though from out our bourne
of time and place,
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Card of Thanks

During the extended illness of Mother, we want to say thank you for the many acts of kindness and service in tender ministrations, only loving friends and neighbors could possibly think of. At the hour of service we are grateful to Rev. C.A. Riggs for his kindly tribute to Mother and his tender admonitions to us; the beautiful songs of hope and comfort, the considerate care of those in charge, and the presence of so many of our friends. William McNett & Children

From her Memorial

Record....After several months of illness following an operation in August, she departed this life peacefully on the evening of Jan. 7th, 1935. Her life is mirrored in this tribute; "She has achieved success who has lived well and laughed often; who has filled her niche and accomplished her task; who has left the world better than she found it; who has looked for the best in others and given the best she had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benediction." This book contains her biography and lists all children and their birthdates. (Written by Louise McNett Viers)

Delaware Gazette, 1/10/1935.....Funeral Services for Mrs. Daisy L. McNett who died Monday evening were held at the Peachblow U.B. Church Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with Rev. C.A. Riggs officiating. Arrangements were by Clase-Mohr Funeral Home, Delaware, Ohio. The Clase-Mohr duo sang "Above the Bright Blue" and "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" The Athletic Club of the Berlin Schools acted as escort and assisted with flowers. Pallbearers were Floyd Griffith, Frank Kiser, Rollin Jacobus, Ashton Conklin, Carroll Conklin and Howard Durfey. Burial was made in Cheshire Cemetery.

From the writings of her daughter, Thelma....."She was born June 21, 1884 at the home on the State Road, where she lived until she married at twenty two. She was a blond, fair complected little girl with big blue eyes. Mama went to a one room brick school house, walking to school on the Peachblow Road (this school was later used as a home for several families, and today stands alone empty of human lives, but filled with memories). I remember mama as a kind and gentle soul, very soft spoken, gentle voice, serious at times, but often very humorous. She was very compassionate and loving. When a child, she attended Peachblow Church, later becoming organist there.....

Laughter and humor were two qualities Mom and Dad shared, and I fondly recall memories when dad would play his fiddle and mama played the piano. I watched her gold ring as it clicked against the keys. It was then that I knew I would play the piano someday. Mama sewed, making me dresses that I dearly loved. She loved pretty flowers, goldfish, church hymns. I still picture her in the kitchen, preparing bread for her family, singing a favorite song as she worked. No other raisin pie ever tasted the same as her's or the fried chicken heaped on the platter. The depression times tried their souls, and that's the only time I remember Mama and Dad arguing, and it was always over lack of money and worries of raising a large family. I remember by far the times of fun and laughter between them and the family. The stress of the depression and ill health overcame her and she died at the young age of fifty. At the tender age of twelve, I lost my mother."

Notes for William Edgar McNett:

After his bankruptcy, Edgar moved with his family to Jefferson Twp., Franklin County where William was born April 18, 1876. They later moved to Delaware County settling in Orange Township on the North Road. Throughout his early adult life, he was associated with the creameries in Lewis Center, Westerville, and LaRue (He was living at 416 Park Street in Westerville in the 1910 census). The Westerville Creamery was apparently the main creamery as others on maps of the day in Richwood and in LaRue bore the "Westerville" name. There are conflicting reports of when he was at each location and when he moved to LaRue where he became a stationary engineer. (The date was prior to the birth of daughter, Pauline, who was born May 11, 1911). He traveled back and forth from LaRue to Lima, Ohio where he studied and became an electrical engineer, an entirely new line of work. He filled that capacity at the LaRue power plant in the years before power was brought to that village from the Marion, Ohio plant. The WWI Draft Registration Sept. 12, 1918 lists his occupation as a Stationery Engineer working for Johnson & Miller. His occupation listed as engineer in light plant in the 1920 census. In 1920, sometime after the census in January (he lived at 196 South Section Street in LaRue, Montgomery twp., Marion County), the family moved back to Delaware County and the Peachblow community, to help his wife's ailing parents farm their land. His daughter, Thelma was born in the Rust home on Old State Road in Berlin Twp. (The house still stands among million dollar homes in the Alum Creek Dam area, now a suburb of Columbus). This is where they were living in April, 1930 at the time of the census.

He lived in rural Delaware County for another fifteen years before electricity that he had provided for families in LaRue came to the rural areas of Ohio. His occupation the remaining years of his life was farming in the Berlin Township area of Delaware County. He and his family worked the land and made a home on Peachblow Road, tenant farmers, giving half of all earned to the landlord in exchange for a roof over their heads. He kept a simple journal of income and expenses is evidence of the trust the two men had in each other. His sons later were able to buy the farm, where they remained throughout their lives. I remember, as a boy, hearing people say....." If Will McNett says it, it must be so".

FROM THE LARUE CENTENNIAL HISTORY 1952 "Larue In Review"

In 1904 power for the electric street lights was being supplied by contract with J. A. Slanser. Again the "younger generation" was hearing about the "old days" when street lighting consisted of candles, protected by glass shades atop crude poles. They could remember the kerosene lamps and the Old Lamplighter". Scheduled to be turned on at dusk (depending upon the season and the weather) the electric service depended, too, upon the Scioto, for during high water the plant in the Lumber Company was flooded. In all cases the current was turned off at 12 midnight.

In 1922 this plant was abandoned and a public utility came to LaRue.

Written by his daughter, Thelma....."Dad was a humorous, outspoken man. He spoke his opinion of circumstances; be they domestic, family problems, or politics. In fact, I think he enjoyed a good argument on government affairs. Dad was a typical Irishman with a quick, springy walk and twinkling blue eyes. He joked a lot and usually brought a chuckle to those he talked with. His favorite pastime was playing the fiddle, holding it low on his shoulder and rotating the bow in a circular movement. it was different than the position others used and I was fascinated by it. I treasure the memory of playing the guitar with him as he fiddled the old fiddle tunes. In memory, I can see him wearing his dark derby hat, cocked over one eye. He was spry and slender and very straight. Dad was popular with the younger generation, for he joked a lot with them. He had a shrill whistle that I can almost hear now. He sang also; I recall mornings when we were still in bed, hearing him as he sang loud and clear, "Precious Memories, How they linger" as he walked to the barn to start his day. He lived, the last of a large family and no doubt had many precious memories of his people. Dad was a loving and compassionate person; alert to every pain and suffering we had. He was a gentle man, yet quite manly and stern. Dad's ways with the animals was gentle as well. I recall him coming in after a hard day in the field, the horses plodding wearily in front of him. No brutal beatings or kicks were ever inflicted upon them. No harm to man or animal, he loved the country, farming, & communing with his neighbors."

Obituary
From the Delaware Gazette, 8/28/1957.....William McNett, son of Edgar and Rosella McNett, was born on April 18, 1876 and departed this life, August 20, 1957, at his home on Peachblow Road, at the age of 81 years, four months and two days. Death came at noon on Tuesday, culminating an extended illness. Mr. McNett was the last of a family of ten children. He was born near Center Village and while a young boy, moved with his family to Delaware County. On March 11, 1906, William McNett was united in marriage to Daisy Rust. To this union were born seven children; Melvin, Louise, Pauline, Helen, Robert, Lowell, and Thelma, all of whom survive. Throughout his life, Mr. McNett was associated with the Lewis Center, LaRue, and Westerville Creameries. Later, he became a stationary engineer, which capacity he filled at the LaRue power plant in the years before power was brought to the village from Marion.

In the year 1918, he moved back to Delaware County and Peachblow where he resided for the rest of his life, his occupation being farming. Here he labored, tilling the soil and living close to nature which he loved so much.

On January 7, 1935, his beloved wife departed this life at the early age of 50. After this, his interests began to wane, but he continued to educate and keep his family together. His love and devotion for their well-being was first in his mind and attentions throughout the years. Mr. McNett was a good neighbor and friend, devoted husband, loving father and grandfather. His influence will always be felt in the lives of his children, by his friendliness, cheerfulness, his smile and his wonderful understanding.

Now the laborer's task is o'er
Now the battle day is past,
Now upon the farther shore,
Lands the voyager at last.
There the tears of life are dried,
There it's hidden things are clear,
There the work of life is tried
By a juster Judge than here.

Mr. and Mr. Charles Rust wish to express their thanks and gratitude to their many friends, some of them schoolmates of fifty years ago, for their kind remembrances on their golden wedding day which occurred on Friday, Oct. 7th. Although the health of Mr. and Mrs. Rust would not permit a gathering in the good old fashioned way, they both being in poor health the past two years. Someone had started the kind thought of a post card shower resulting in 70 cards and letters. All the way from Mississippi came a lovely bouquet of yellow roses just picked and a nice long letter telling about their home. The flowers and fruit of the country from Mr. and Mrs. William Hults which was greatly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Rust. Also a card from Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hults of Wisconsin. Mrs Fannie Perfect thought the day would not be perfect without a wedding cake, so she presented them one. While the relatives presented them with a purse of near fifty dollars which was thankfully received. Along toward evening, while they were yet rejoicing over the beautiful friendship, and the tokens of esteem that lay before them, and in God's goodness in giving them such pleasure, who should appear, but Mrs. Rust's sister, Mrs. Thomas Griffith of West Berlin. She with her husband came with a well filled basket of all things good to eat which meant a wedding supper. So the day closed full of happy memories to be looked back upon and rejoice in the days to come."

Delaware Gazette....."Mrs. Mary Ellen Rust died Friday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock at her home in Berlin Township, following a month's illness. Funeral services will be held at the Peachblow Church Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with Rev. N.E. Rush officiating. Burial will be made in Cheshire Cemetery." From her obituary.....

"Mary Ellen, second daughter of George and Elizabeth (Green) Stover, was born in Licking County Ohio, January 13, 1855. When one year of age, she came to Delaware County with her parents, who settled on the farm where they lived the balance of their lives. This farm surrounded the land on which the church stands, the land having been given by Mr. Stover, and largely through his efforts and the help of his wife the house was erected. On October 5, 1871, she was married to Charles Rust and for more than 51 years they lived on the farm in Berlin Township, where they began life together. Soon after their marriage, they united with the Peachblow United Brethren Church, and were faithful members until called from this life.

"Aunt" Ellen took a great interest in the work of the church and was particularly active in the Sunday School, where she almost always had a class, many of the men and women here today in their youth having been in one of her classes, and can recall her gentle manner, and thorough Christian character.

She was the last member of her father's family to answer the call of the "Grim Reaper" and at her death was the oldest member of the church. She died on September 9, 1932, aged 77 years, 7 months, and 26 days. Her husband preceded her on July 30, 1922. They left a son, Vinton D. Rust, and a daughter, Mrs. Will McNett, and seven grandchildren who will always remember her as a faithful wife and loving mother, ever willing to do all she could to make the burdens of life more easy, and the pathway just a little smoother."

Thelma writes..... "Grandma was of small frame, and a frail women. She made the best tasting pies and raisin cookies imaginable. In her younger years, she boarded the train to visit Uncle Vinton in Chicago. She was a strong woman in her youth, driving the horse and buggy to visit, shop in Lewis Center, or to attend church. She was known as Ellen to her friends and neighbors; a soft spoken, caring woman." Louise also remembered her fondly; calling her loving and kind; she said that Grandma Rust would send her to the mailbox to get the mail. She would sometimes bring back the "Religions Telescope" , a Christian magazine that she would study from.....and " she would also rap you with it if necessary to keep you in line".

The area where Piatt Road and County Rd. 10 (Old State) intersect was known as Rust's Corners in the early part of the 19th century, and is noted as such on maps of that time. The Rust and Janes families, coming to the area from New York, owned most property in that immediate area extending to Alum Creek. The area remained much the same as it was then, until the third quarter of the twentieth century when Alum Creek Dam was constructed to supply water to Columbus & Franklin County. Today it is the site of many upscale homes, being part of the Lewis Center area, now a suburb of Columbus. On the property along Alum Creek (Now Alum Creek Dam Recreation Area) is a large marina and boat dock.

6. George W. Stover, born 25 Aug 1826 in Fairfield County, Ohio; died 17 Apr 1880 in Berlin Twp., Delaware County, Ohio. He was the son of 12. Benjamin Stover and 13. Sarah (Silkett) Chilcutt. He married 7. Elizabeth Green 21 Mar 1853 in Licking County, Ohio.

7. Elizabeth Green, born 28 Jan 1830 in Licking County, Ohio; died 20 Apr 1892 in Berlin Twp., Delaware County, Ohio. She was the daughter of 14. Benjamin Green and 15. Barbary Houser.

Notes for George W. Stover:

Baskins 1880 History of Delaware County lists G.W. Stover, a farmer and trader: P.O. Lewis Center. "His father and mother, Benjamin and Sarah Chilcutt Stover, both natives of Hardy County Virginia, moved to Fairfield County Ohio in 1811. Benjamin was a participant in the War of 1812. He moved to Berlin in 1856 according to Baskins. George was born in Fairfield County in 1826, the youngest of a family of five children. George commenced teaching school before he became of age, which he continued, during the winter season, for several years-- in all eighteen terms--working on the farm during the summer . In his 24th year, he married Elizabeth Green, born in Licking County in 1830, daughter of Benjamin and Margaret (Mary) Malone Green. He moved to Berlin Township, Delaware County in 1856, and bought 146 acres of land. October 1872 he began business in Lewis Center, in the grocery and grain trade, being the only grain dealer in the area. He buys and ships about 30,000 bushels annually ; he also carries on his farm and has four children. He is a member of the United Brethren Church and has been prominently associated with that body since its organization in that locality; the church building is located on land he donated. He served the congregation for 27 years as "class leader" and was later licensed "to exhort" by the quarterly conference of the United Brethren Church. He served four churches on a circuit in the township. He was one of the Democratic members of the Board of Infirmary Directors

The Houser Cemetery is located on a small bluff approximately fifteen feet above the stream bed and some fifteen feet back from the edge of the embankment, in Violet Township, Fairfield County, Ohio. Catherine's marker is one of only two stones in their original location. George's with others is leaning against a tree at the north side of the plot.

A United Brethren Church was built on section 24, Violet Twp. by Peter Houser, Jacob Houser, Jacob Good, and other families. I believe this to be the Houser Chapel, later Trinity Church where G.W. and Elizabeth Stover and their families attended and where they were converted.

ESTATE of GEORGE H. HOUSER of LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.....His will was written October 12, 1841, filed in 1842, and recorded in will book 3, page 124. Executors were his son Abraham and son-in-law, Benjamin Green. Heir by the will was wife, Catherine, oldest son Abraham and his sons John and Absolom, and fourth daughter Lydia. George H. Houser owned land in section 19, Twp. 17, range 19. Jacob Houser bought personal property.

THE HISTORY OF PEACHBLOW CHURCH

These facts were found in a memory book owned and written by Mary Ellen Rust, daughter of G. W. Stover: In the year 1856 the district of land, now known as Peachblow, was thickly wooded and had narrow mud roads, rail fences, and scattered log cabins. To this territory, during the same year, in the month of March, George W. Stover and family came from Licking County and purchased sixty acres of land. Their dwelling place was a log cabin which stood on the spot where the house and home of Mr. Paykoff now stands. Mr. Stover having no shelter for his stock, built a barn of logs and the first church services of this community were held on the threshing floor of that crudely constructed barn.

Later, George Stover and other Peachblow pioneers began to wonder where they would bury their beloved dead. So in February 1858 Stover, greatly interested in church work, donated one acre of land for a church and cemetery. He also had timber from the northwest part of his thickly wooded farm and on the thirteenth day of that month, willing hands started the task of construction. The carpenters were Henry Rust, Symen Mason, Gustaves Elesbury, and Gordon Furnace. There were no sawmills in those days, so they used the broad ax for making the timbers. The shingles were made of blocks sawed the length of shingles and made smooth with the drawing knife.

The interior of the church and the seats were painted a peach color. Some, not fancying the color, began calling the church Peachblow and that name, as we all know, has endured down through the years. After the church was completely finished, there were appointments made to which ministers were assigned. These places were Peachblow, North Berlin, Chicahominy, and later on Williamsville and the Climer school house. Most of the young people went to services on horseback except the more fortunate rode in carriages. Back in those years they had no piano or organ to accompany their singing and the United Brethren Hymn Book and another book called the Harp contained no music, just the words of hymns.

There has only been one wedding in the church. The bride was the daughter of William Mantor and the groom Simpson Collier. The church was arranged much as it is today with three rows of seats and what was known in those days as the amen corner each side of the pulpit. After the couple entered the church, Mr. Collier came in the West door and Miss Mantor came through the East door. They both proceeded up the aisles to the third seat of the altar where they took their vows. A few of the early ministers of the church were J.B. Bovey, A.E. Powell, and A.E. Penic. All were students of Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio. In conclusion, I wish to state a few interesting facts concerning the Peachblow Church. (a) The building was erected for the sum of five hundred and seventy dollars. (b) Our first minister was Rev. S. Kelso. (c) The salary for that year was one hundred and six dollars and forty nine cents. (d) The first quarterly meeting was held September 4, 1858 (e) George Stover was secretary that year. The following are names of ministers who have served this church: Reverends H.A. Locke, B.C. Rife, Lloyd Mignerey, Ralph Vernon, Grover Smith, C.P. Smales, J.R. Bowser, H.V. Harter, W.W. Arnold, O.M. Martin, George Weir, Cornell, Appleton, Clay, Rodeback, and the present pastor Everette Scarberry." In 1963, a basement was dug under the church and a new floor installed in the sanctuary. George Stover would have been proud to know that Bob and Lowell McNett, and Willis Kiser; his great-grandsons, were Trustees of the church. It was still a gathering place for family and friends to worship over 100 years after the first service was held in the church on Peachblow Road. Closed for a short time in 1968, when the United Brethren and Methodist Churches combined into the United Methodist Church, It was soon re-opened to serve the community. August 27, 2006, a Homecoming celebrating 150 years was held in the church. October 3, 1864.....G.W. and Elizabeth Stover received from the trustees of the Berlin Chapel of the United Brethren Church, the sum of fifteen dollars, in payment for the land on which Peachblow Church was built. The deed witnessed by Joel Cleveland and Benoni Dickerman.

There are records in the Delaware County Recorders office showing that G.W. Stover had several transactions where he bought and sold land in Berlin and Orange, and Genoa Townships. George Stover, 24 living in Liberty Twp., Fairfield County is listed in the 1850 census, married within the year to "Eve", his occupation a thrasher, with real estate valued at $950. Evy died in 1850 and is buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery on State Rt. 204, Liberty Twp., Fairfield County. Benjamin Stover's family is in Violet twp., adjacent Twp., October 12, 1850, George Stover purchased for ninety dollars, 60 acres in the south east section of section 19, township 17, range 19 (the northwest corner of Liberty Township, Fairfield County) from Jonathan and Susannah (Finkbone) Houser. Susannah was Eve's sister. In October, 1851, George sold this parcel to Isaac Finkbone, Eve's brother for $145 after the death of Eve (Finkbone) Stover.

George Stover was converted at Trinity. No town by that name in Central Ohio; however, Trinity Church is near Pickerington, Ohio, on the edge of Violet and Liberty Townships. His sister in law's (Mariah Rhoads) obituary mentions the church, saying "she gave her heart to Christ and joined"....the church that was originally called the Houser United Brethren Church. The name was later changed to Trinity United Brethren Church. The 1854 plat map of Etna Twp. in Licking County shows George Stover living just north of Benjamin Green's property. April 1, 1852, George purchased for $500., twenty acres in section 18, township 17, range 19 Etna Township) from Simon and Jane Haver. This property was bounded on the north by land belonging to Henry Warner and on the east and south by land belonging to Benjamin Green, and on the west by land belonging to Frederick Ault. This property was sold September 8, 1855 to George Dellenbauch for the sum of $830.

In the 1860 census, an Elizabeth Stover, born in Maryland, age 65, living with George's family in Berlin Township, Delaware County. Elizabeth Stover listed in the Delaware County Infirmary in 1870, a pauper born in Penn, mother and father of foreign birth, unable to read or write. died 2/15/1877 and buried in Delaware County Home Cemetery .

Delaware County Infirmary Records, DCGS/DCHS....."Admitted August 7, 1860. Age 60. Habits good, lived in Berlin Twp., Died Febr. 25, 1877."

(Her relationship is not known, possibly the widow of one of his brothers). Delaware Gazette....." Mr. George Stover, one of Berlin's most respected citizens, breathed his last at three o'clock on last Saturday afternoon where he had resided during the past twenty five years., and in the fifty third year of his age. At the time of his death, he was one of the Democratic members of the board of infirmary directors, and was well liked and Highly respected by those who knew him. His remains were placed in the vault at Oak Grove cemetery on last Monday. The funeral services being conducted by W.T. Watson and Rev. Bonemaker, of the United Brethren Church of which he was a devout and earnest member."

He is listed as the Delaware County Infirmary Director in 1877. Up until 1851, the pioneers of the county managed to care for themselves and their families. However as the population increased and aged, they found the need to establish a means for public assistance. The Infirmary was built to give the unfortunate of the county a place to spend their declining days..... In 1856, a prison for the insane was established on the grounds of the infirmary.

From his obituary....."Rev. George W. Stover was born in Fairfield County, Ohio and died in Berlin Township, Delaware County, Ohio April 17, 1880, aged 53 years, 8 months and 22 days. In 1852 he was married To Miss Elizabeth Green, with whom he has lived twenty eight years, and who now is left with three daughters and one son to mourn an irreparable loss. When about twenty-four years old Brother Stover embraced religion at the old Houser meeting house,-- of precious memory to hundreds, -- and there joined the United Brethren Church, of which he has been a constant member since. About eight years ago, at the urgent request of his brethren, he accepted a licence to preach; and, in this relation to the church, his labors were successful wherever he went. As an intelligent Christian gentleman, he was nearly always in an official position; and whether holding office in the township, county, or Church, he filled his place with unassuming dignity and honor to all. The various financial interests of his church and charge were freely sustained from his abundance, and his house was "the preacher's home".

Four weeks before his death, he said to his pastor, "The world is looking very small to me now; and as I look upward there is not a cloud between me and heaven. All is bright." Being a man universally esteemed, an unusually large congregation was present at his funeral, and their deep sympathy showed their appreciation of his worth. Of him it can be truly said, "He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

At the quarterly conference of Peachblow Circuit, one week after his death, a committee was authorized, and the following preamble and resolutions were adopted as their sentiments: Whereas , our heavenly Father has by Death called our brother, Rev. George W. Stover from our number and councils, and we realize our great loss; therefore,

Resolved,

- 1 That we bow submissively to the will of God in this our grief, and say, "Thy will be done".
2. That we will seek to imitate the zeal, benevolence, and piety of our Christian brother.
3. That we hereby extend our sympathy for his bereaved wife and children, and shall pray for their divine support and guidance in this dark hour of their sorrow.

John was born in Licking County and brought to Orange Twp., Delaware County at an early age. He was dedicated to the church founded by his wife's father, G.W. Stover. He taught music to the church members, using a blackboard. Hymnals used in the church had no written music. He served in the Civil War. Enlisting at the age of 18, on March 7, 1864 as a private in The Ohio First Cavalry, and later, Company C, Fifth Independent Cavalry, which was later merged with the Thirteenth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry. He was discharged March 25, 1865, and spent the rest of his life as a farmer. He was the accessor for several years, reporting deaths in Berlin Township. 1880 census.....Berlin Twp. farmer. The Delaware Gazette 5/9/1902....."Mr. Conklin was a man whose character and influence were far reaching with his wide circle of friends in Delaware County.. He had been in failing health since last fall, and seriously ill for two weeks previous to his death which was the result of Bright's disease."

Delaware Gazette, May 14, 1902, Peachblow "The funeral of John Conklin at this place on last Sunday afternoon was the largest funeral that has been held here in a number of years."

Delaware Journal Herald, Memorial"John Conklin was born near Hartford, Licking County, Ohio August 17, 1846; was called home May 5, 1902, being a pilgrim of earth for 55 years, 8 months, and 22 days. Mr. Conklin was married to Malissa Stover Dec. 28, 1869, who has ever been a faithful and loving companion. This happy home was blessed with five children. Matthew Conklin, a loving Christian son, passed to his reward eight years ago. Father and mother, one son, one brother, and two sisters have preceded the deceased into life here after. Brother Conklin leaves to mourn his loss; a companion, four children, three brothers, three sisters and many friends.

In January, 1870, the deceased gave his heart to the Lord and joined the Church of the U.B. at Peachblow. Since that time, Brother Conklin has been a strong pillar in the church. He was a man who could be relied on to do his part. Was always a liberal supporter and his place in Sunday school and church was rarely vacant except in case of sickness. His home has always been open to God's servants, and they always found a royal welcome by his friends. At the age of 17 he enlisted in the 5th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry and rendered efficient Service for the cause of freedom. It is more than likely that during this period of his life, the seeds of an early death were sown.

In the home, Brother Conklin was a faithful, loving husband and a kind and indulgent father. His family was very dear to him and he was anxious about the success of them all.

His neighbors knew him as one always ready to accommodate them in any way he could. His straightforward integrity, frankness, and wholehearted honesty has made him many friends.

The rich hope he possessed has bloomed into mortality. He is at rest, his warfare is over He rests sweetly on the evergreen shore. His fragrant life shall be missed in the home, the church, and neighborhood. But our loss is his eternal gain. Soldier of the cross farewell til we meet in the morning of eternal light."

She leaves to mourn one brother, Louis Green of Etna, her daughter -in-law, Mrs. Ida Rhoads, six nieces, 5 nephews, a host of relatives and friends. When but fifteen years of age the deceased gave her heart to Christ and in 1852, joined what was then called the Houser United Brethern Church, which name was changed in 1866 to Trinity United Brethern Church. The church regrets very much the loss of this dear friend, for it marks the passing of our oldest member. For seventy two years she has been a faithful pillar in the church. Her life was constantly devoted to the church and the cause of Christ. She was a diligent student of God's word and a living testimony to the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. Her daily tasks were never begun until on bended knee she had sought divine guidance and strength from her loving Savior. Her last sickness was of short duration, lasting about three weeks. Through it all she was uncomplaining, bearing it all without a murmur. On her bed of affliction, her comforting message to her friends was that she was ready to go. Her parting words to those who were at her bedside were, 'I want to go home to meet Benny'.

John went from Pittsfield, Mass., to South Hero Vermont with his father, Elijah, and was there a number of years, returning to Pittsfield in 1812. In 1816 a Mrs. John Janes united with the Congregational church in Pittsfield. Not long after this, they all went to Ohio, most settling in Delaware County.

John was an eccentric genius; but more, he was a regular, rough, untamed backwoodsman, self-willed, dogmatic, looking upon refinement, courtesy and good breeding as irrelevant to practical life. But he is credited with various labors to do good to assist in religious services and to preach some peculiar views as he had opportunity. John-like he drove around the country, having no idle days. He worked till the last day of his natural life, and died quite suddenly. He married (1) Hannah Rockwell, 1791, who died September 2, 1832. He married (2) Fanny Cothran, 1833. She died 1842. He married (3) Miss Eunice Rose.

ARTICLE IN "THE RELIGIOUS TELESCOPE" , December 15, 1858.....

Rev. John Janes died at his residence, in Berlin Township, Delaware County, Ohio, November 21st 1858 in the 88th year of his age. Father Janes was a native of one of the Eastern States, came to Ohio and settled on the farm, where he lived and died, forty years ago. He embraced religion when in his sixteenth year, and ever after through life's long journey, endeavored to live the life of the righteous; and for a number of years has been a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The writer became acquainted with hi, the latter part of last winter, when he engages in holding a protracted meeting in the neighborhood, in which he took a very active part. Though the infirmities of old age were upon him, he was a regular attendant night and day at the meeting, adding much to the interest of the same by his frequent reference to his experience, and intercessions at the throne of grace, and his warm and powerful exhortations to the unconverted to immediately embrace the Savior. After the above meeting and up to the time of his death, he was very regular in his attendance upon the means of grace, and living in the full enjoyment of the love of God in his heart: and often have we heard him express his desire to depart and be with Christ, and to join with those who had gone before, among whom was quite a goodly number of his own family and relatives. Two of his sons who had preceded him to the land of glory, were ministers in the Methodist E. Church;-- Rev. John Janes, Jr. was for a number of years, a traveling minister in Northern Ohio. Father Janes assisted us by giving of his means to the erection of a very neat church in his neighborhood during the last summer, in which his funeral sermon was preached by the writer, to a large and weeping congregation of friends and neighbors. His death was somewhat unexpected, but it found him ready. May his friends who are left behind, each one of them, follow in his footsteps, until all shall meet in the land of the blessed, where sickness, sorrow, pain, and death, and the separation of friends are never known.

T.T. Rose

According to records found in Peachblow Church, T.T. Rose was the minister of that church in 1857-58. Nephew Marshall Janes and his son Oren Janes and other family members were active in Peachblow U.B. Church

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

Baskins 1880 History of Delaware County, page 192..... In 1805, a settlement was made in what is now Berlin Township. The first purchase of land in this division of the county was made by Joseph Constant, and consisted of 4,000 acres. He was a Colonel in the war with the Seminole Indians, of Florida, and was taken sick at the South, and returned to his home in New York, where he soon after died.

Baskins 1880 History, page 452... The first purchaser of land in Berlin was Joseph Constant, of Peekskill, N. Y. He bought Section from the Government, paying two dollars per acre, and receiving a deed signed by John Adams. He was known as Judge Constant. Whether he received his title from a popular feeling that he was good as a judge or because he had enjoyed that honor, is not clearly known. He is said to have been a colonel in the army, and engaged in the war with the Seminoles in Florida, where he contracted an illness which terminated in his death.

Rev. John Janes was born at Grand Isle, South Hero, Vt., January 4, 1802, died at Norwalk, Ohio, 8 February 1848.

At the age of seventeen he emigrated to Ohio, and at twenty entered the itinerant connection of the Methodist Episcopal church. His ministry was within the states of Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan; and, as a pioneer preacher, traversed many a swamp and wilderness. He was a man of great energy and force: of genial temperament, and noted among his peers for brilliant conversational powers, endowed with wit and aptness in repartee. Bishop Thompson thus speaks of him in a published biographical sketch:

"His abilities in the pulpit were by no means of an inferior order. In his early days he was fond of polemical divinity; and, as he possessed sprightly wit, a warm fancy, an active intellect, and a dauntless heart, he was no mean antagonist. Unsparing to the strong, he was merciful to the prostrate, and courteous toward both. In his prime he was truly eloquent, though generally argumentative. He did not seek, like the giants of fable, by piling mountain upon mountain, to make a path from earth to heaven; rather like Apollos, he was wont, relying upon the aid of the divine spirit, to bring down heaven to earth by the melting strains of his subduing eloquence.

The companion whom he married 21 May 1828, was Hannah Brown, born in Plymouth, Vt. 16 January 1808. Her family emigrated to Michigan in 1827, and herself and sister, young ladies of seventeen and nineteen, formed the first Methodist Society at Ann Arbor. Her present residence is Berea, Ohio."

Notes for Hannah Blanchard Brown:

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~ohcuyaho/cities/middleburgh.html>

Among those whom Berea "delights to honor" must be classed Mrs. Hannah (BROWN) JANES who, with her father's family, removed from Plymouth, Vt., to Ann Arbor, Mich., in 1827. Her parents were Daniel and Polly (JEMMISON) BROWN, the latter a daughter of a Revolutionary soldier. Hannah BROWN and her sister, Rebecca, formed the first Methodist Episcopal church in Ann Arbor, with a class of seven. "Now we must have a preacher," said Miss Hannah, and to this effect wrote the presiding elder at Detroit. In response to this call Rev John JANES was sent to Ann Arbor. The young preacher did not care to look elsewhere for a wife. The following year they were married and appointed to Sandusky circuit, where Rev. JAMES received for his first year's salary $80, while his gifted young wife taught school for $1 per week. She decided to invest her first earnings, $18, in a feather bed, but the man by whom she sent for the goods made off with her money. A cruel loss. At thirty-five years of age Mrs. JAMES was left a widow, with five children to care for, but was not the woman to fold her hands and ask "What shall I do?" She read law that she might intelligently settle her husband's estate, moved her family to Berea, and placed her daughters in Baldwin Institute, from which Emma graduated.

Mrs. JANES was remarkably endowed, impressing her personality upon with whom she associated. Her last residence was Cleveland, where, in the home of her daughter, Mary (Mrs. W.A. INGHAM), president of the woman's department, centennial commission, her long and well spent earthly life was sweetly ended.

location. George's with others is leaning against a tree at the north side of the plot.

A United Brethren Church was built on section 24, Violet Twp. by Peter Houser, Jacob Houser, Jacob Good, and other families. I believe this to be the Houser Chapel, later Liberty Church where G.W. and Elizabeth Stover and their families attended and where they were converted.

ESTATE of GEORGE H. HOUSER of LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.....His will was written October 12, 1841, filed in 1842, and recorded in will book 3, page 124.
