Notes for James Finch:

The Twelfth of sixteen known children. Served in the Confederacy from Texas. First as a conscript in Company D, 1st Battalion, Tx Infantry, later inlisting in Company C, 23rd (Gould's) Tx Cavalry Regiment along with brothers George W., Daniel, and Robert. With his prominence in the community came the honor of having the post office named after him. Finch was the community's first and longest operating post office (1892-98). Deeded half acre for a new school in 1891. In 1900 and the years that followed he made his home with his son, Felix, at Post Oak. He dispensed much of his property to his children in his latter years. in 1907, the year he turned 80 years old, he applied for and received a pension for his Civil War service. His death occurred 7 years later, his grave is marked by a military marker placed in recent years.

Notes for Felix F. "Bud" Finch:

He grew up in Post Oak where he lived most of his life. The year of his birth is incorrectly shown on his tombstone as 1888 (his mother died many years earlier). His second wife, Mattie B. (Lucas) Edwards was the widow of Jim Edwards, his former wifes brother. He and his sons, Jack and Roy, were in his wagon traveling from the Detroit area toward Red River one day in November 1931 when the team became frightened and bolted. Unable to control the horses, and afraid they may crash the wagon into a tree or overturn it, Bud opted to jump out of the wagon. His head hit the ground and his skull was fractured. He was many months in recovery from this incident. It is unknown if he ever fully recovered.
