Notes for CALVIN DILLARD SOUTHERS:

Notes from Christopher Southers:

Cal was born and raised in Riverside, Virginia. He began working on the Norfolk and Western Railroad when he was about nine or ten years old. The men would give him change to help out. Eventually he was hired on.

Cal worked as a boilermaker for the Norfolk & Western Railroad. He was a gentle man who loved children, making sure that they always ate first in his house. People came from everywhere just to talk to him.

(See note under CHRISTINE GORDON)

Calvin loved children. Would get sad and drunk after Susie died. "Leave me be". Would have kids eat first at dinner. 5'9", curly brown red tinted hair, bald in back as he got older. Cal had curly hair, strong but not a big man. Fingers looked funny. Died of heart disease. Limp on each wrist. 150 lbs. Gave impression of a big man. Talked quiet. Didn't argue. Wanted to drink at home. Would take Susie her first coffee in bed. His first cup he drank from the saucer. Drank black coffee. Very respectful.

As Susie reached her final days, Cal moved around as if he was in a dream. Doc gave her a 'kill or cure' shot with Cal's okay. She had been nearly comatose for three weeks.

The railroad got the message to Cal when his mother died.

Cal went to bed at nine every night after listening to the news on the radio, just like his daddy.

Cal enlisted in the Army during World War I, but was only in a few months. He was called back home and allowed a discharge because his wife Cora was dying of tuberculosis.

II. JAMES DILLARD<sup>4</sup> SOUTHERS (PHOEBE L.<sup>3</sup>, ROBERT<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born September 01, 1864, and died September 06, 1944. He married MARY ELISABETH NICELY, daughter of A. NICELY and FANNIE. She was born June 10, 1879, and died December 07, 1941.

Notes for JAMES DILLARD SOUTHERS:

Note from Christopher Southers 7/4/2004

One day my Grandma (Roslyn) casually mentioned that Granddaddy Jim (James Dillard) and one of his brothers were not Phebe's children.

Grandma (Roslyn) tells me how her father (Calvin) told her that James Dillard and a brother, she was never sure which one, came out of the mountains and were taken in by the Southers family.

----- Additional Notes from Christopher Southers -----

Roslyn Southers recalls a story that her father Cal told her about how Jim and his brother came out of the mountains at a very young age. They came to a farm and were taken in. The farmer's name was Southers, hence Jim and his brother became Southers. In those days it was common for a family to take in the children of their kin or neighbors if they were no longer able to be cared for. There's no way of knowing which of James' two brothers the story refers to.

Roslyn also recalls that Granddaddy Jim always walked around with his hands behind his back and relates that Jim had at least two daughters that died. Roslyn's sister Rene gave her grandfather homemade dresses for the girls, who lived to be at least three years old. What happened to the girls is unknown.

Roslyn Southers recalls that Jim was real tall, big moustache like in cowboy days, curled up a little. Long arms.

Notes for MARY ELISABETH NICELY:

Note from Christopher Southers 7/4/2004

By the time Mary had grandchildren she was heavy and had lost all of her teeth. Roslyn Southers recalls how she would slobber when she kissed you, something her brother Amos would avoid at all costs.

Mary's epitaph reads 'A Tender Mother And A Faithful Friend'

Roslyn Southers recalls a family story of how horrified Mary was by the violence and loss of life of the first world war, and how she swore that she'd never live through another war. She died the day Japan bombed Pearl Harbor, an act that catapulted the United States into World War II.

An interesting note on Mary was that after seeing the destruction of World War I, she often said that she never wanted to see another war. She died December 7, 1941

When Cal brought his family from Shenandoah to Riverside, Mary would always meet the train.

Roslyn recalls that Mary couldn't cook very well.

- vii. REV. MATTHEW GORDON SOUTHERS, b. 1911; d. Bef. 1955; m. CHRISTINE GORDON, Private; b. Private.

Notes for REV. MATTHEW GORDON SOUTHERS:

Roslyn Southers recalls that Matthew suffered either a sunstroke or heart attack that precipitated a fatal fall from a roof. She as well as Twilla Kent remember him being a travelling preacher and that he once hoboed a train from Buena Vista to Shenandoah.

There was an old well covered with boards behind Jim's house. Rose stepped on it, boards cracked & Matthew grabbed her, pulling her back. He showed her the well. He said he wouldn't tell Susie, but never to do it again.

34. CALVIN DILLARD<sup>5</sup> SOUTHERS (JAMES DILLARD<sup>4</sup>, PHOEBE L.<sup>3</sup>, ROBERT<sup>2</sup>, WILLIAM<sup>1</sup>) was born August 12, 1892 in Buena Vista, VA, and died October 10, 1955 in Shenandoah, Virginia. He married (1) CORA LEE CLARK October 1913, daughter of JAMES CLARK and JENNIE SOUTHERS. She was born January 28, 1893 in Rockbridge Co, VA, and died July 08, 1918 in Rockbridge Co, VA. He married (2) SUSIE CLEM November 17, 1919. She was born March 19, 1894 in Shenandoah, VA/Shenandoah, Page Co., VA, and died September 18, 1945 in Shenandoah, VA. He married (3) MARY Private. She was born Private.

Notes for CALVIN DILLARD SOUTHERS:
Notes from Christopher Southers:

Cal was born and raised in Riverside, Virginia. He began working on the Norfolk and Western Railroad when he was about nine or ten years old. The men would give him change to help out. Eventually he was hired on.

Cal worked as a boilermaker for the Norfolk & Western Railroad. He was a gentle man who loved children, making sure that they always ate first in his house. People came from everywhere just to talk to him.

(See note under CHRISTINE GORDON)

Calvin loved children. Would get sad and drunk after Susie died. "Leave me be". Would have kids eat first at dinner. 5'9", curly brown red tinted hair, bald in back as he got older. Cal had curly hair, strong but not a big man. Fingers looked funny. Died of heart disease. Limp on each wrist. 150 lbs. Gave impression of a big man. Talked quiet. Didn't argue. Wanted to drink at home. Would take Susie her first coffee in bed. His first cup he drank from the saucer. Drank black coffee. Very respectful.

As Susie reached her final days, Cal moved around as if he was in a dream. Doc gave her a 'kill or cure' shot with Cal's okay. She had been nearly comatose for three weeks.

The railroad got the message to Cal when his mother died.

Cal went to bed at nine every night after listening to the news on the radio, just like his daddy.

Cal enlisted in the Army during World War I, but was only in a few months. He was called back home and allowed a discharge because his wife Cora was dying of tuberculosis.

Notes for SUSIE CLEM:

Notes from Christopher Southers:

Susie was working as a nurse on Irish Creek when she met Cal. Roslyn Southers remembers her being a great cook. Whenever the Southers' went to Riverside, Susie did the cooking.

Susie wasn't a talker. Could be at home for two days and she wouldn't say anything. Peaceful presence. Her favorite was Amos.

Susie went to the hospital for radiation treatments. Stomach and back were burned brown.

2 days before her death, she couldn't / wouldn't talk, but you could see in her eyes that she was aware.

Dr. Shuler gave her a 'kill or cure' shot, in effect, euthanasia. She died immediately. Pal, their dog, howled and howled.

The Clem's came across as reserved, decent and stoic. Most people liked them.

Susie was very protective of Rose.

Susie died of cervical cancer. She had radium treatments that burned her stomach and back. Doc gave her a 'kill or cure' shot with Cal's okay. She had been nearly comatose for three weeks, though Rose remembers her eyes would follow you.

71. ii. EVA IRENE SOUTHERS, b. December 06, 1922, Shenandoah, VA; d. April 11, 1991, York, SC.
- iii. JOSEPH CALVIN SOUTHERS, b. August 14, 1926; d. December 06, 1954.

Notes for JOSEPH CALVIN SOUTHERS:

Joe worked on the Norfolk & Western Railroad. A lineman, worked on the signal gang.

Joe was an Infantryman in World War II. He was killed when a drunk driver ran his car off of a bridge as he was driving his fiancée Francis Woods to her job in Christianburg, Virginia.

Joe had a bald spot in the back of his head that got bigger as he got older. Amos identified Joe by his bald spot after Joe's accident.

Joe went down to the cornfield where 'Widder' Ryan and her men would have sex. Joe would later ask her "how the corn was". Ms. Ryan was a near neighbor. Would come out at night and cuss Joe. Joe was interested in her daughter.

There was a three legged dog that Joe was supposed to kill. He took it into the woods and didn't kill it. He'd carry it around to go hunting.

Joe enlisted in January 1942 with Newton Armentrout & Hunter Long Jr..

Joe had some narrow escapes in France. Spoke of French girls.

Joe joined the Army. Infantry then Tankers. Had a tank blown out from underneath him by the Germans.

The last time Rose saw Joe he gave her two $50 bills. Told her that if she had it, pay it back, if not, it was hers.

Joe lived in Radford with the signal gang.

Joe left Christiansburg with his fiancée Francis Woods, who had to be at her job as a nurse in Roanoke by three. Snow began to fall. Ahead of them on the highway was a car full of teenagers that appeared to be drinking. They kept blocking him when he tried to pass. Joe grew impatient and tried again. It's unknown if the other car cut him off or if he simply lost control, but the car lost traction and began to skid sideways into a river bridge. An eyewitness reported that it looked like Francis' side of the car was going to take the impact, but then "like a mighty hand had turned it", the car spun around. Joe's side impacted first and the car went through the bridge, down into the icy river. Joe was killed immediately. The other car never stopped.

At the time Joe was working as a signalman for the N & W Railroad. During the week, he would live in Radford in a modified boxcar with his fellow workers. They had indoor plumbing and heat and Joe took it in stride. He was well liked at the railroad and made many friends. One of these friends approached Cal at the funeral. Joe had made it a habit most evenings to come in and say a few words to him before going to bed. Joe had done just this on the night of December 5th. It wasn't until later that the man received word that Joe had been killed earlier that day.

Notes for JOSEPH WILLIAM FLOYD: November 25, 2003

Know as Granddaddy Joe by all of his grandchildren and Joe by friends and family. He was retired from Reeves Bros. in Buena Vista VA.

He was always tinkering in his workshop / garage. He at one time worked for a Chevrolet dealership as a mechanic. He was also a welder. He worked for a cup factory in Buena Vista years ago. I think he was a maintenance technician for the cup factory. He always told me stories about repairing the cup machine that inserted the bottoms in to the paper cups and how he learned to weld aluminum there. He later worked at Reeves Bros. in Buena Vista. I am not sure of his position, but I assume it was in maintenance as well. He talked about working with engineers and building equipment for production there. I always saw him in blue work pants, blue work shirt, and blue hat. It was his uniform. The only time he dressed differently was when he went to church. He planted a garden every year and I remember his growing corn, green beans, strawberries, cantalope and so on. He would work in his garage and repair washers and dryers, then he switched for repairing lawn mowers and tractors. As a child I remember his wearing his dress blues and he would have grease under his nails. He would rinse the grease from his hands with gasoline and I remember his eating wintergreen lifesavers. I can still smell the gas and lifesavers. He was a rather small man physically, but he had a big heart and you could count on him.

He always had a story to tell and enjoyed telling story after story after story when company visited. He had a great sense of humor and enjoyed hearing and telling good jokes.

In 2003, granddaddy Joe got sick. The doctors said that he had cancer on his lungs and he had had a heart attack that damaged a good portion of his heart. Earlier the previous year he had a stroke in the garage while working. All of this didn't slow him down much. He continued to go to work in his garage as long as he could. When the time was close for him to be called to heaven he talked with all of his children about going to heaven. He told them that he was a saved man and that he wanted all of his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and so on to become saved because he wanted them to meet him in heaven when their time came.

We all loved granddaddy Joe and I will miss him until I see him again.

Troy Floyd

Joe worked for Decker Chevrolet in Buena Vista, VA for some time and then worked at the local cup factory in maintenance until he was employed by Reeves Brothers as a maintenance tech. there in town.

Joe was a small man in stature. He was probably about 5'7" or 5'8" and weighed in at a massive 110lbs soaking wet.

Joe went to church regurally and participated in church activities. He played the guitar and several other instruments.

Joe was a big Nascar fan. When Joe was younger and his sons adults, they went in together and built a race car and raced it out at Natural Bridge raceway. It was a dirt track.

Notes for AMOS DILLARD ROGERS:

Curly served in Vietnam. Though born a Rogers, he went by the surname of Liskey, even in the military.

Notes for AMOS BENJAMIN SOUTHERS:

Amos used to hate kissing his Grandmother Mary on visits to Riverside. She had no teeth and would slobber when she kissed you.

Amos was a World War II veteran. He loved to fish. His ashes were scattered over his favorite fishing hole. The SSDI lists Amos' last residence as Union Bridge, Maryland.

Amos talked quiet like his father.

After Susie's death, Amos & Rose sat on the front porch out of the way. A black cloud came over the house. A very defined cloud.

Amos spent 9 or 10 years in the military. His last station was in Alaska. He worked at the Lee Hi Cement in Fordwick, then the Lee Hi in Union, Maryland.

Every day when they were at Riverside, Amos and Rose would come up with a quarter to go to the store. They'd hold hands until they got out of sight of the house then pull their hands apart.

Amos could be a mean big brother, making Rose eat grass and rabbit droppings.

While posted in Alaska, Amos loved to fish, buying a boat and a big freezer.

Amos joined up soon after Susie died, about 16 days later. Amos told Rose not worry, she had him, after Susie died.

Amos loved his pipe and he loved to fish. He worked at the Lee Hi Cement Factory in Fordwick. He would drive down from Maryland to visit, but would always drive back that evening, never staying the night. Bob called him 'Ham'. Together, they made up a "full moon", a reference to the appearance of their bald heads side by side. Amos was cremated and his ashes dumped in his favorite fishing hole.

Notes for SERENA JOY SOUTHERS:

Joy worked for many years as a Licensed Practical Nurse. She was also a poet and a writer. Her favorite song was 'Hotel California' by The Eagles. She loved cats. Joy also had a darker side that often came out in her writing.

Must learn to die, before you ever learn to live.
As we fear and face it, it proves we are yet alive.
Have you felt life, heard it's rhythmic waves, the smell filling the air, the taste upon your lips?
The ecstasy as we become one, the weight, the depth where calculations are jelled?
The ice, of fire and steel.
There are heights, yet unreachd, and depths I've yet to feel. Where today reaches into forever.
Where to reach heaven, you must do some time in hell.
Come quickly, but take all night, together, all alone.
