2. James S.² Stinnett (Benjamin¹) was born 1810, and died June 21, 1877 in Amherst Co. VA. He married Mary S. Rodgers February 17, 1829 in Amherst Co. Va. She was born Abt. 1808, and died Unknown.

Notes for James S. Stinnett:

A note 2/12/07

There is some dispute as to the Father of James S. Stinnett who married Mary Rodgers. Some researchers believe that Benjamin and Adeline were the parents of James, while others believe that it is the way I have it listed here. For now, I will leave it the way you see it. However, evidence is starting to stack up against it.

He is listed as age 40 on the 1850 Amherst Co. VA Census (birth est. 1810), 54 on the 1860 Census (birth est. 1806, 66 on the 1870 Census (Birth est. 1804), and 64 on his death records (birth est. 1806).

On the Census for 1870, he and his wife are listed as having William, age 26, son and Cyrus, age 11.

On all records, James was listed as a Farmer.

He died at age 64 from inflammation of bowels as reported by son Pitt F. Stinnett, according to Amherst co, VA death records as Jones Memorial Library, Lynchburg, VA.

 A note from researcher Phyllis Harvey 2/12/07 *****

According to my research, James S. was born between 1804 - 1810. This is estimated from his ages listed on the various census records. He is listed as 40 on the 1850 census, 54 on the 1860 census.

On the 1870 census, he and his wife are listed as having William, age 26, son, and Cyrus, age 11. The 1880 census shows Mary living in the household of her grandson, Cyrus Stinnett.

The death records of Amherst Co., VA at Jones Memorial Library, state he died 21 June 1877 in Amherst Co. This information was provided by his son Pitt, and it listed the father of James S. as Benjamin.

I don't know who this Benjamin is, but if James S. was alive when Charles A., Sr. died, why is James not listed in his will?

The 1850 census lists James. Mary, M.F. (female) Benjamin, Reubin, Elizabeth, Martha. William, Pitt, Catherine, and another male that I can't make out a name.

On the 1850 census, there is a Charles A., Sally, Affiah, John, Charles, Robert, Thomas, Sarah and William. The age of Charles is listed as 45.

The age of James on the 1850 census is listed as 40.

Because of the above, I am looking for any kind of definite proof that James S. was the son of Charles A. I have not been able to connect the Benjamin that I have listed to either Benjamin Sr. or Benjamin Jr.

But the death records specifically state Benjamin and Adaline are the parents of James S.

James' age is listed as 40 on the 1850 Amherst Co census (est birth 1810), 54 on the 1860 Census (est birth 1806), 66 on the 1870 Census (est birth 1804), and 64 on his death record (est birth 1806). On the Census for 1870, he and his wife are listed as having William, age 26, son Cyrus, age 11. On all records, James was listed as a farmer. He died June 21, 1877 in Amherst Co, VA. Cause of death is listed as inflammation of bowels, at age 64, son of Benjamin and Adaline Stinnett which was reported by his son Pitt F. Stinnett, according to Amherst Co. VA death records at Jones Memorial Library, Lynchburg, VA. (Courtesy of Phyllis Cyrus Harvey)

Mary is listed on the 1850 Census as age 30, 52 on the 1860 Census, 60 on the 1870 Census, and she is listed as 71 on the 1880 Census. On the 1880 Census, Mary is listed in the household of Cyrus Stinnett, her grandson.

Died due to stroke in 1973.

Bernard was a diabetic.

Aunt Pete:

"When my dad started school he decided to carry an Axe handle to protect himself from what, I don't know. He wanted to show everyone that he was Boss. Once when the Tobacco crop was loaded on the wagon, Dad's grandfather told him that he couldn't go to market with them. Dad (Bernard) waited until everyone had gone to sleep that night and he removed the braces holding the wagons from rolling. Down the hill went the tobacco crop. I don't know how much of the crop was saved and dad never said what was done to him for the deed."

8/3/2006

Using a search on the Internet, I entered Bernard's social security number and found that he may have been a Railroad worker.

Social Security numbers beginning with 700-728 meant railroad workers thru 1963.

Pitney F. Stinnett is the way most record his name. He was known as "Uncle Pitt" by the neighbors and friends in his community, and his wife was called "Aunt Maggie". Several years ago I went to a homecoming at their church,, and met a Mrs. Davis, who was in her nineties, and she remembered Pitt, Maggie and John.

Since Bernard died at Virginia Beach, I would imagine his deeds and/or will is recorded there. At least, Virginia Beach is what I remember. The last trip he made to this area was to attend my mothers funeral. He was in pretty bad shape then.

I remember Bernard and Blanche. I can bearly picture Ed Lee. When we were small children, we used to visit Buena Vista every couple of weeks. Most of the time we ate with Lou and Elmer, then went to visit with other relatives after lunch. Of course, we were always there for funerals.

I remember when Bernard's son Cecil was drowned. We were children, and in someone's kitchen. Blanche was standing at a sink or stove with Pete at her side. Apparently Pete had been in an auto accident of some kind and I remember her tlling Blanche that God had thought to take her, but decided Cecil was a better choice.

Strange what memories pop up when you least expect them.

Notes from email with Phyllis Cyrus Harvey 3/3/2007

I do remember Robert Cecil's death because my whole family attended his funeral. We spent the night at Lou's (Lou Stinnett) so we could attend visitation with the family.

I wish I knew what kind of accident your aunt Pete had been in shortly before he drowned. I can only remember her leg braces and crutches.

I also remember Bernard attending my Mom's funeral. I might have told you before, but that was his last trip to this area before he died, and his first in a long while.

Notes for Harry Thomas Stinnett:
Story from Phyllis Cyrus Harvey 3/3/2007

A story that I am fond of remembering about Jr. Stinnett is that when we were children and he was living with us, he was a lot of fun. Once he was all dressed up to go out, and I started picking at him and we ended up on the ground. Much to my delight and his consternation, he landed in a pile of puppy poop. I laughed so hard he started laughing also.

I remember another time when I struck my forehead (eyebrow) with a piece of iron and was bleeding profusely. Jr. carried me in his arms about 10 blocks to get to the nurse at the nursery we stayed at while Mom worked. The gash required stitches, and to this day, the small scar is still visible because brows do not grow in that spot.

Story from Phyllis Cyrus Harvey 3/3/2007

My dad used to tell us of how he met Mom. My dad and his brothers were musicians and they were playing for a dance in Buena Vista that Mom attended with Lou and Elmer. Daddy saw her and told his brother that she was the woman he was going to marry.

When he got serious about her, he went to the home of her parents to ask if he could marry her, but John and his sons were not at home. So, Daddy was directed to the mountain where they were cutting wood. When Daddy got there and stated his reasons, all Mom's brothers literally attacked him. They thought he was not good enough for their sister, and were going to beat him up really good. However, John stopped them and listened to Daddy's plea, and decided he would make a good husband for his daughter. Believe it or not, Daddy became close friends with every one of her brothers after that.

Edward served in the US Marine during WWII. However, he only served 2 months because his brother drowned and Ed was the only remaining son. The Marine Corp released him from service , "Under Honorable Conditions", because of this.

Military Service dates are March 24, 1945 to May 26, 1945.

On his DD214 (military record), dated 1945, he lists his last employer as Waterfront Lumber Co. in Newport News, VA. He lists his last day of employment at March 20, 1945. Waterfront Lumber is still there today at 1200 Jefferson Ave, Newport News, VA 23607 (757)245-0091.

He was educated in Rockbridge Co. Schools.

He was a plasterer and applied stucco. He was self employed and all of his sons worked for him at one time or another. His son David eventually stuck with him and took over the family business at his death.

Edward was affectionately called "Rabbit" because he had so many children. Dora would call him Ed Lee. He liked to hunt and fish. He loved to go to Friday night football to watch the Fighting Blues of Parry McClure high school.

He was over 6ft tall, had blue eyes, and had a thin build.

He died of a heart attack while working on scaffolding. He fell to the ground and his helper tried to give him mouth to mouth.

Edward had a child prior to being married.

Aunt Pete: "Marian Bradley, I think. She had very dark brown hair and real curly. Her grandmother married a Cooper man who had a hardware store above where Frances and Donald live, the building is still there. Marian moved to Maryland with a sister and never returned as far as I know. Edward and Marian's child lived with the grandmother in Buena Vista. Last I heard their child moved to California.

Ed Lee and Marian were just kids when this happened. Mrs. Cooper and mom were friendly and talked about it in front of me."

When he was told that he only had a few months to live, he looked at the doctor and said, "Well that's life." Most people, nowing that they are close to death, take to their beds.
