Notes for EVERETT EARNEST SMITH:

"Everett Smith, resident of Grand Junction, was killed Saturday morning when his car was struck by the Challenger passenger train at 6:15 a.m. The accident happened one block west of the Northwestern depot here, on highway No. 144. There are signals at this crossing but it was thought that frost on the windshield of his car obstructed his view. The body was so badly mangled and cut to pieces that no relatives were admitted to see it. Mr. Smith was about 35 and with his wife and one child lived in the north part of Grand Junction about two blocks from the Northwestern tracks on highway No. 144 and was in the habit of coming down town in the morning for water, as there was no water on the place where they lived, and at this time was returning home when the train struck him. He was employed by the H.H. Turner hybrid seed corn company during the fall season of sorting corn. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Winterset with burial at that place. Of the immediate family, Mr. Smith is survived by his widow and one child, a son 2 years old. The family had lived in this vicinity about four years." (Obituary)

Notes for JAMES RAMON RICHEY:

Jim attended Jefferson High School where his humorous side was apparent when in his yearbook he was quoted as saying "Work fascinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours". He was a member of the French Horn Quartet and apparently enjoyed it because years later he tried to encourage me to take it up when I was in High School. He exposed me to all kinds of music, from instrumentals like "The Grand Canyon Suite" and "The 1812 Overture" to Glenn Miller and other "Big Bands" and to this day I still enjoy them. When IQ tests were given for the first time, his sister Ramona remembered how he surprised everyone by getting the highest score in the school. After graduating in 1946, he joined the Army and was stationed in the Aleutian Islands. Following an honorable discharge in 1948 he attended Bowles Business College where he received a degree in telegraphy and worked for the railroad a short time. The remainder of his life was spent in the electronics industry, beginning with Square D Company and ending with Rockwell International's Autonetics Division as a quality control source inspector of missile components. He loved fishing and boating, so much so that he built his own cabin cruiser which he kept docked at the Sacramento River. After he moved to South Carolina he eventually bought a place along Lake Greenwood where he could continue to enjoy his love of the outdoors. (by Laurese Richey Herron)
