Prior to her marriage, Elva lived with her family in Glidden as well as Abbott's Grove near present day Ammansville, Texas.

Elva was very active in her church, United Evangelical Lutheran Church in Swiss Alp, Texas just up the road from Black Jack Springs / O'Quinn, where she played the organ for many years. This church is the second oldest Lutheran congregation in Texas.

Elva was also the precinct election judge until the Black Jack Springs precinct was folded into the La Grange precinct. She also raised crops and cattle for many years, as well as tended to her vegetable and flower gardens for which she won many blue ribbons in the Fayette County Fair.
