Notes for RACHEL HELTON:

Rachel Helton Spurlock was born at Otter Creek, Kentucky in a place called The Dark Rockhouse, on July 2, 1915...she was a fabulous cook and a great housekeeper, one of her favorite sayings was " my children always had plenty to eat and a clean bed to sleep in "...she loved her neighbors, and was always there to help if they were in need...she was always an inspiration to her family...

This Poem entitled " Memories For Your Heart " was written and dedicated to her grandmother by Carol Ann Sandlin...

And the Lord said, "I'll give you a gift," a loan from me to you;
Someone to love and cherish, who will always be there for you.
But he said, " Whenever I call, you have to let her go."
" You can keep her in your heart, whenever she comes home."
And so I will remember, and keep close to my heart,
all the wonderful times, of which she was a part.
The gingerbread she fixed, the flowers that she grew,
the quilts she made by hand, the stories that she knew.
The vegetables that she canned, the sauerkraut she could make.
And who could ever try, I wonder, to make her old stack cake.
The advice that she would give, and i would never listen,
But as i got older, i began to understand her wisdom.
The hard work that she did, things that she would teach,
the " old sayings " she would tell, the times that she would preach.
The fires that she would build, the holidays that we shared,
and who will ever forget, the pixicurls in her hair.
There's so many more memories, of which she was a part,
we can carry her forever, deep within our hearts.
But now the Lord has called, and we will have to let her go, we love you and we'll miss you, but we know that you've gone home.
I love you Granny,
Carol Sandlin
