Notes for Henry Clay HUDSON:

TRIBUTE TO HENRY CLAY HUDSON (Obit)The sudden passing of Henry Clay Hudson, whose death recently occurred in Plaistow, N.H., deserves more than a passing notice. The deceased was born in Lynn, March 12, 1844, and enjoyed comparatively good health to within a short time of his demise. He was one of nine children and leaves one sister, Mrs. T.C. Black of Lynn; one daughter, Mrs. Clarence McDonald of Plaistow, N.H. and three sons, Harold C. of Lynn, Arthur L.J. of Haverhill, and Ralph E. of Plaistow: also seven grandchildren besides several nephews and nieces. His education was acquired in the public school of Lynn, being a classmate of the late ex-mayor George D. Hart. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served 11 months in Co. F. Eighth regiment, Infantry. Part of this he served under his brother, Captain James Hudson, who was later a Lieutenant-colonel, whose renowned message to Gen. Schouler will long be remembered. He was clerk for his brother in his hotel for many years. He was a great reader and endowed with a good memory. His children will ever remember his early teachings of truth and courage. After his removal to Plaistow he taught his younger children the early rudiments of education, the district school being some distance. The latter half of his life was passed in Plaistow. Mr. Hudson was born in Lynn on North Franklin Street, near Boston, where the old family home still stands, on the opposite side of the street from the Lynn Hospital, and was a son of Isaac O. and Lousianna Galeucia Hudson. His father in his early life learned the trade of shoemaking in company with his brothers.

3072. Thomas HUDSON, born in England.

Notes for Thomas HUDSON:

Thomas may have come to Salem in 1630 on the Arbella with Gov. Winthrop or in another ship in the fleet, and eventually settled in the part of Lynn which later became Saugus. In 1638 he was granted 60 acres on the banks of the Saugus River. In 1642 when the Saugus Iron Works was founded he supposedly sold the land for it to the Proprietors. When the first iron pot was cast at the foundry (by ironmonger Thomas Jenks) Thomas acquired it. It was passed down in the family for more than 100 years and is now supposedly in the possession of the Lynn Public Library.
